

Seminar Social Security Law

KU Leuven Master of Laws

During this seminar the students write a paper of max. 5000 words in order to further develop their research and writing skills. Each student needs to analyze a topic on social security law and write a research proposal, setting out the state of the art, problem statement, relevance, limitations and a research question for further research.

LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Innovative activities

①

- Online course on research skills

②

- Discussing exercises
- Answering questions
- Test on knowledge acquired during the online course

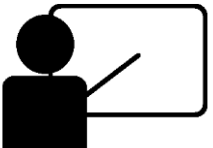

Conventional activities

③

- Writing paper

④

- Individual feedback

⑤

- Presenting paper

GOAL  IMPROVED RESEARCH AND WRITING SKILLS

1

- Online course on research skills (developed as part of the project “Research skills” at the Faculty of Law, KU Leuven)

1. Watch video

2. Read chapters in book

3. Read the examples

4. Listen to feedback on examples

5. Prepare the exercises

2

- Discussing exercises
- Answering questions
- Test on knowledge acquired during the online course

Students come prepared to the class

Use clear and short instructions and get feedback before using them

Examples help students to write their paper

Discussion of exercises in class is important

More interaction in the class

Active participation of teacher remains important

- FURTHER DEVELOPMENT OF LESSONS
 - Making lessons on other topics like methodology, citing sources, etc.
- FURTHER SPREAD TO OTHER LEVELS
 - Adapting the innovative activities to the BA and MA law programmes,